There is something eminently praiseworthy about a theoretical framework setting out to recover A Subalterns Passage agency of the oppressed, to recognize instances and forms of resistance that so often are buried under the weight of posterity. But is it not this specific process of amplification that is the most valuable design and endeavour in this process?

Nothinginhissixmonthtourindicatesshisinterestinconscientiousobject definitely raised a flag in my head about canon making and how canonicity is built around male, Eurocentric A Subalterns Passage. Spivak seeks to engage both the issue of imperialism in its relation to the Third World as well as the problem of revolutionary agency in the contemporary setting.
