As time passes, Anne realizes she no longer hates Gilbert but cannot bring herself to admit it. The main question is not, How much will we still be able to do during the few years we have left to live?

Let us begin by focusing on these commands, and obey them in whatever circumstances. What possible reason can there be for ignoring this? We grow as we repent the many little ruptures in our relationship with him that our sinfulness has caused. Prophecy, on the other hand, does not require an interpreter, and thus it is the more profitable gift, unless tongues are interpreted. The command to develop and exercise our spiritual gifts must never be used as a search.
