We would have wanted to diminish our sense of sin, and put the image of a man up on the pole. He took all your sins and died once for all.

The truth is right there in plain sight for all to see if they are willing to take. They are tried and condemned. Meet me here and we will start the day .

The soldier who throw himself on a hand grenade to save his friends. Let us remind ourselves of those words in the first chapter of Seeing Beyond the Basic Truths of John 3:16 "To all who received him [to all who did business with Jesus by faith, who asked him to enter their lives and save them, deliver them, lead them out, change their nature], who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God: who were born [born again] not of blood [not something you inherited from your ancestors] nor of the will of the flesh [not by your own desire and determination] nor of the will of man [nobody else can do this for you, no bishop, no priest, no pope, no one], but of God. It abides into the next world, because those who reject Jesus cannot offer a perfect sacrifice acceptable to God.
