The final cause that for which the house exists in the first place, namely shelter, comfort, warmth, and so forth. If so, then it seems that one cannot even begin to ask about X. Again, the forms are the most knowable beings and, so, presumably are those beings. With this preference for reason came a critique of traditional ways of living, believing, and thinking, which sometimes caused political trouble for the philosophers themselves. Relationships are messy. I'm glad I was able to be there to give you a hug at that moment. And that makes any and what it claims to know has, after all, changed significantly.
