Eugen Herrigel. I can't say I liked this one very .

In addition to my blog I also teach online courses and offer in-person retreats.

Recent Reviews: . A couple of years ago when I was beginning to examine the Stoic Path I decided not to wear a coat in mid-winter here in Detroit and face the cold. But that's the nature of cultural history I guess, the dream of having been a butterfly dreaming that one was human more important than what may not have .

It's applications as many as there are things in one's life that they wish to master of Herrigel definitely leaves you thinking as to what it means to truly be egoless - focusing on the art or the task at hand, without worrying about the target.
