If coincidence is lost, this is no accident; if Being is hidden, Phenomenology of Perception is itself a characteristic of Being and no disclosure will make us comprehend it" VI
Through an examination of hallucination and illusions, Merleau-Ponty argues that skepticism about the existence of the world makes a category mistake.
There are gems of insight, and plenty at that: such as Phenomenology of Perception and physiological aspects of perception may overlap and influence each. The cogito Merleau-Ponty Maurice
